The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

- ☐ 5:00 p.m. Saturday July 02, 2011
- ☐ 9:00 a.m. Sunday, July 03, 2011
- ☐ 11:00 a.m. Sunday, July 03, 2011

Readings: 1) Zechariah 9:9-10 2) Romans 8:9, 11-13 3) Matthew 11:25-30

The focus for today's Mass is that no one knows the Father but the Son, and those to whom he is revealed by the Son.

In Today's Liturgy of the Word,

Zechariah's words offer hope as they tell of how a king will come to Israel, bringing salvation and the promise of peace to all nations.

The second reading calls us to die to sin by the power of the Spirit, so we may live.

In the Gospel, Jesus invites all who are burdened to come to him and find rest.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS

PRIEST:

Together let us bring our needs to the Father, who is constant in his great love for us.

For Pope Benedict and all ministers of the Church,
as they give witness to God's limitless love
by lives of selfless service in his name,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those who hunger for more meaning in life,
as they open themselves to Jesus and his promise of salvation.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those who have become new Canadians
And for all who make them feel welcome.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For the sick, especially Michael Ingoldsby

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those who have died,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For each of us here as we seek to have hearts that are pure
and full of love,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For our own personal intentions, (long pause),

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

PRIEST:

Father, we bring our concerns to you, trusting that you love and care for us in every way. We ask that you hear our prayers, offered through your Son Jesus Christ.
