Sunday Liturgy

The focus for today's Mass is that The Transfiguration shows the depth of God's love for us.

The first reading recalls Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son Isaac.

In the second reading from Romans, we are reminded once again that if God is for us, who can be against us?

The Gospel recounts the Transfiguration, wherein Jesus' identity as the Son of God is confirmed

GENERAL INTERCESSIONSPRIEST:

We join together in offering our prayer to God the Father, who is always for us as we bring forth these petitions.

For the Church, may she always proclaim the truth and joy of the Gospel,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For people throughout the world, that all might find salvation and hope in knowing that God so loved the world he sent his son,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For the poor, the sick and the suffering

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For our beloved dead,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For all of us gathered here, that we might always be open to turn to Jesus who intercedes for us,

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For our own personal intentions, (long pause),

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

PRIEST:

Lord God Almighty, we ask that you hear and answer our prayers. For we offer them to you through Christ our Lord.
