

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Year C

Sunday, June 23, 2019

Readings: 1) Genesis 14:18-20 2) 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 3) Luke 9:11b-17

Sunday Liturgy

The Focus for today's Mass is: God is a God for us.

God created us in his image, dwelt among us and remains with us in truth and as our strength and guidance. Everything God does, he does for us. May we strive to live in relationship with one another as our Triune God does with us.

Our first reading is a poetic reflection on the wisdom of God being present in all that God does. Saint Paul tells the Romans that they have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that they will come to understand his teachings more fully when they are filled with the Holy Spirit.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS

PRIEST:

With confidence and trust,
let us bring our prayers and petitions before our heavenly Father.

For the universal Church,
as a Eucharistic people may the grace of God help us to be faithful communities united in love of God and neighbor.
We Pray to the Lord.

For the entire world,
may we come to know Jesus in the breaking of bread.
We Pray to the Lord.

For those who are sick in mind, body and spirit,
and for those who care for them.
We Pray to the Lord.

For all those who have died,
may they be forever wrapped in the loving arms of our God.
We Pray to the Lord.

For all who gather at this table,
and for all who cannot be present.
We Pray to the Lord.

For our own personal intentions..... (long pause)
We Pray to the Lord.

PRIEST:

Father, we entrust our prayers to you in the holy name of your son, Jesus Christ.
