Thirty-First Sunday of Ordinary Time

All who humble themselves will be exalted.

(Matthew 23.12)

We like to think of ourselves as self-made women and men when we have worked hard for our accomplishments.

Although our diligent efforts may be good stewardship as they cultivated God's gifts responsibly, it is important to remember that the gifts came from God in the first place.

For all the hard work and the help we received from others, let us remember that we only have one Father—the one in heaven.
