Red Wednesday - November 20

On November 20, the Church in Canada will celebrate Red Wednesday, a day of prayer for persecuted Christians. Last year, the Diocese of Calgary demonstrated its commitment to praying for persecuted Christians by hosting more Red Wednesday events than the rest of the country combined. This year, we hope to show our solidarity and unity by having a prayer event in every parish across the Diocese.

Wear RED to work, school & play.

List your deceased family members on the page provided in the entrance.
We will put these names in the "Book of Remembrance" which will be placed at the Cross of Remembrance during November.
